Kedarkantha Peak is a 12500ft summit that is hailed as one of the most popular winter trekking destinations in India. Located on the western borderlands of Uttarakhand, this summit opens up to the wide panoramic views of Himalayan range.

Kedarkantha is a short and easy trek of 9 kms from Sankri Village to the summit which offers delightful marvels that a trekker dreams to experience in the journey. The summit has mythological significance that dates back to Mahabharata when Bhima and Lord Shiva (disguided as a bull) have a duel. The wooden architecture of Sankri Village adds up to its cultural values and picture perfect setting.
